

Fundamentals of Investing And Retirement Planning

PRESENTED BY LINCOLN FINANCIAL ADVISORS

Monday, November 27th, 2017
From 1:00 PM to 2:00 PM

Please join us for a basic discussion on the fundamental principles behind deciding how best to invest your money. Included will be

- the basic types of investments available to you
- how to be certain you are properly allocated for an “efficient” portfolio and what that means
- how to determine your risk tolerance based upon your age and other factors

There will also be time allotted for a Q&A. Looking forward to seeing you at this informative seminar!
